

Brushing up on all things wholesome

The Panasonic Contemporary Painting Competition is back for the 15th year and the theme will be "Creativity of a Wholesome Life".

Organised by Panasonic Siew Sale (Thailand) and Silpakorn University, the competition is open to Thais of any age who reside in Thailand. They can submit up to three entries: they must be original and must not have been entered in contests before.

The entrants can use any medium in their paintings, including crayon and pencil, provided the size of the works does not exceed 2m in width or length (including frame).

The winner will receive 100,000 baht, with 75,000 baht for second place and 50,000 baht for third. Each of the top three will be awarded a trophy and a digital camera. There are also 10 outstanding achievement prizes of digital cameras and certificates.

Entries should be submitted from May 27 to June 1 between 9am and 4pm at the following venues: Silpakorn University (Sanam Chan campus in Nakhon Pathom), Suphan Buri College of Fine Art, Naresuan University in Phitsanulok, Burapa University in Chon Buri, Chiang Mai University, Khon Kaen University, Mahasarakham University, Thaksin University in Songkhla and Songkhla Rajabhat University.

The winners will be announced at Silpakorn University's Art Centre (Wang Tha Phra campus) on June 7 and the winning pieces will be exhibited at the National Gallery on Chao Fa Road from July 11 to 31.

For more information, contact Panasonic Siew Sale on 02-731-8888 ext 2918 (visit www.panasonic.co.th) or Silpakorn University's Art Centre on 02-221-3841.

The 15th Panasonic Contemporary Painting Competition will be accepting entries between May 27 and June 1.
